Infant Found Dead In Lot

BATESVILLE — An unidentified baby was found dead in a vacant lot in Batesville Friday afternoon by several neighborhood children who were playing in the lot, according to a spokesman for the Panola County Sheriff's Office.

The spokesman said the baby was believed to be black and approximately nine months old. He said that the infant was nude and there was no clothing found near the body.

This is from the Clarion Ledger